

Ms. Deering's Weekly News

October 25th, 2019

We had a blast from the past celebrating our 50th day of school!

Book Bags

Great job returning book bags this week! Remember, all book bags are due on Friday, along with homework. If your child's book bag is not returned by Friday, they will not receive a new book bag the following Monday. Remember to return the mini colored book!

Make up Picture Day

Tuesday, October 29th is our picture make-up day. We will also be taking our class photo, so students should come to school picture ready :)

Halloween Parade and Party

Information about the Halloween parade and party is posted on our class website. Please let me know if you have any questions.

No School Friday

Remember, there is no school on Friday, November 1st.

Scholastic Orders

I will be submitting the last order for scholastic books this weekend. Please submit any orders by Sunday if you wish to receive October books!

Have a great weekend!!
